

Dear Colleagues,

Georgian National University SEU is delighted to invite you to participate in the International Staff Week at Georgian National University SEU in Tbilisi, Georgia, taking place from April 20 to April 24, 2026.

The Staff Week aims to bring together academic and administrative staff from partner institutions to exchange experiences, share best practices and discuss key topics related to international cooperation, mobility programs and institutional development.

In addition to the working sessions, the program also offers networking opportunities and cultural activity, providing a friendly and engaging environment for professional development.

The working language of the staff week is English.

The detail information about the event and registration link is available on the following link:

We would be very happy to welcome colleagues from your institution and further strengthen our cooperation.

Please feel free to contact us should you have any questions.

Thank you!

Best regards,

IRO team
