The target audience for the STW2026 (Staff Training Week) "EKA RESEARCH WEEK" includes everyone involved in research- from those who are just beginning their scientific journey (e.g., doctoral students) to those who are already published authors in reputable indexed journals and wish to refresh their knowledge and connect with fellow researchers.

Priority will be given to participants whose scientific interests align with EKA's research areas: <https://www.augstskola.lv/?parent=563&lng=eng> (<https://www.augstskola.lv/?parent=563&lng=eng>)

During the week, participants will be engaged in several valuable activities, including lectures and seminars, as well as the training sessions within the EKA Research Incubator. Participants of the week will also participate in a networking event and enjoy an active social life.

The preliminary program of the event will include the following activities:

1. Introduction to the Staff Training Week

2. Networking Session
3. Visit to the EKA Research Lab
4. Training Sessions within the EKA Research Incubator
5. Workshops and Lectures on Research Methods
6. Riga City Tour and Other Social Events
