

JAGIELLONIAN UNIVERSITY
IN KRAKÓW

Work-life balance Staff Week

20-24 May 2024

International Students Office of Jagiellonian University in Kraków invites all of our colleagues – employees of International Offices and similar units to the Staff Week event organised by our team. The main aim of the event is not only to exchange good practices in providing various services for international students but also to learn more about work-life balance and well-being from various points of view in the pleasant surroundings of the JU Centre for Academic Support. The event is free of charge, and the participants are expected to cover their travel expenses from the Erasmus+ grant.

A full event schedule will be published soon, but you may expect a meeting with various units of our University, lectures/workshops, and activities devoted to work-life balance and well-being.
